Test Your Knowledge #2

The theme of this puzzle is how well you know your breeds.

Solution

© Keshet Kennels/ Rescue

ACROSS

3. Translates to "Little Captain" in Flemish

5. Name means "monkey-like terrier" in German

7. Distinguished by its butterfly ears, for which it is named

11. Considered a national treasure in Japan

12. Originally used in Afghanistan to hunt hares and gazelles

14. Agile and trainable, they often appeared in circuses in the early 20th century

16. A terrier often compared to sheep with their soft curly coat

17. Medium-sized, double-coated spitz type breed from Korea

23. Get their name from the German word for nose for their most distinctive feature

24. Ancient Chinese royalty loved carrying them tucked into the sleeves of their royal robes

27. National dog of Cuba

28. Oldest breed of dog native to North America

30. Large working dogs used by fisherman in the Maritimes (Canada)

DOWN

1. Russian Wolfhound

2. Has amongst the strongest bite pressure per square inch amongst dogs

4. Largest of the British Terriers and some times called the "King of Terriers"

6. The only dog that can not bark

8. Originally bred to be a war dog

9. One of the smallest dogs in the Hounds group

10. Hunting breed from the United States used mainly to trail raccoons

13. The only dog mentioned by name in the Bible

15. Bred to fight badgers in their dens

18. Puppies are born pure white and develop their spots as they grow older

19. Smallest of the German Spitz breeds

20. Originally bred by a German tax collector who used them for protection while he went about his business

21. Large mastiff type breed from South Africa that's name translates to "farmer's dog" in Afrikaans

22. Only animal whose evidence is admissible in an American Court of Law

25. Hungarian cousin to the Great Pyrenees

26. National dog of Hungary and also referred to as the Hungarian Pointer

29. The favoured pet in Tibetan Buddhist monasteries